Luke 12:13-21

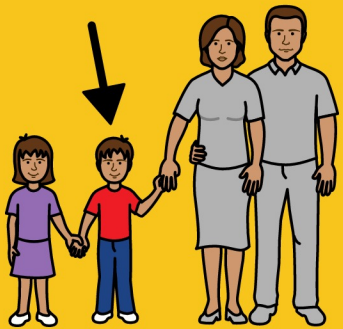

A man in the crowd

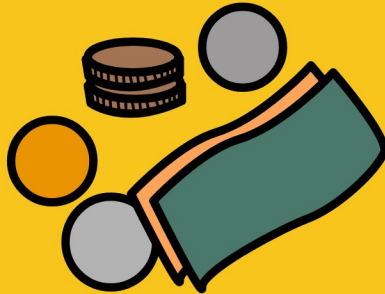

following Jesus asked

Him to make his brother share his inheritance with him.

Jesus said, "Who made me the Judge?"

He then told a

story about a farmer

who had a very large crop one year.

Elementary January 9/10 page 3

So large he couldn't store it all. Instead of sharing it he tore

down his barns and

built bigger ones.

Then he told himself to rest! God called the man a fool

for only thinking

of himself.

God calls us to care for others!!

How much is enough when it comes to the stuff you have?

Would you say

it's easier to

be the GIVER

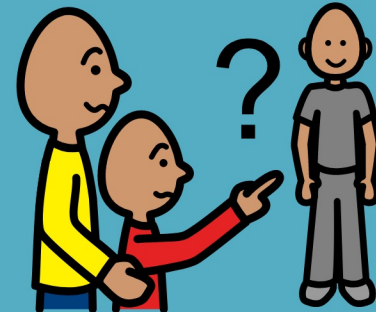

or the RECEIVER

when it comes to sharing?

Who can you

share with today?
