Genesis 26:1-6; 12-22
and 26-31

God chose Abraham and his son Isaac and made promises to them.

God blessed their crops,

flocks and herds.

The nearby Philistines

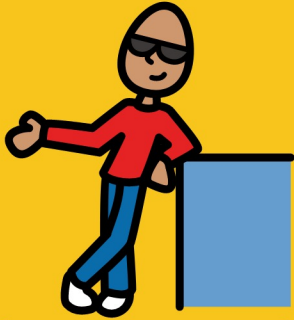

were jealous and destroyed

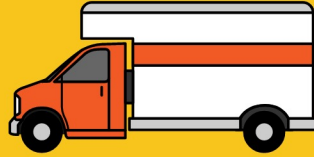

Isaac's water supply.

Isaac kept his cool and

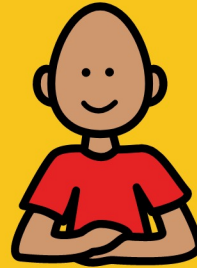

moved his family away.

This continued to happen, and each time

Isaac kept his cool

and just walked away.

Because Isaac chose to stay

strong and walk away,

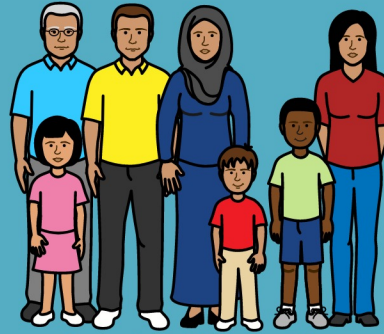

God blessed him with peace.
