1 Kings 21:1-19, 27

King Ahab and Queen Jezebel

lived in a palace with
a humongous yard.

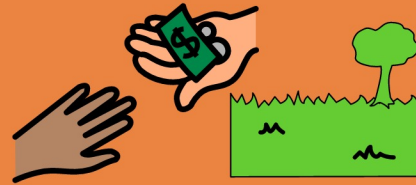

King Ahab wanted

his neighbor
Naboth's yard, too.

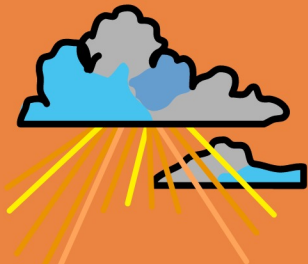

King Ahab asked
Naboth

to sell it to him.

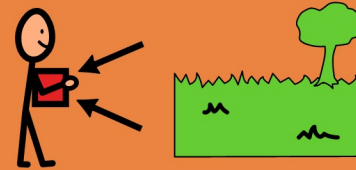

Naboth could not
sell his yard because

God had given it to him.

God told the people

to keep the land He had given them in their own family.

King Ahab was so mad that he went to bed and would not eat.

Queen Jezebel told King Ahab that she could get the land for him.

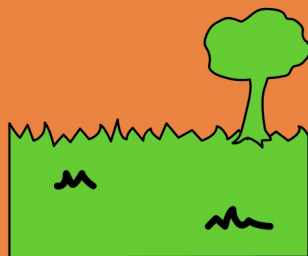

Queen Jezebel had

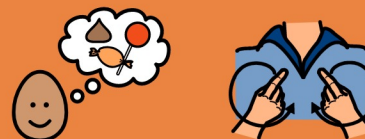

Naboth executed.

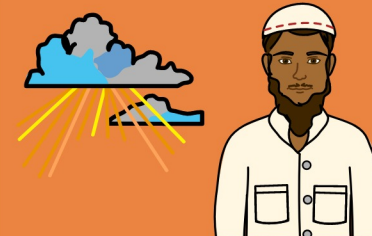

Now King Ahab could take

Naboth's land and he did!

They sinned because they wanted more and more.

God told his prophet, Elijah,

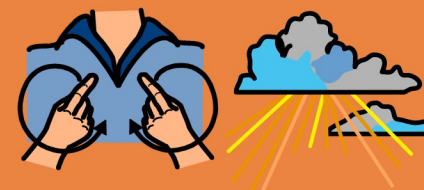

to warn the evil king and queen that they would be punished for their wicked sin.

In the end, Ahab and Jezebel were miserable because they had sinned against God and others.
