1 John 4:10 (NirV)

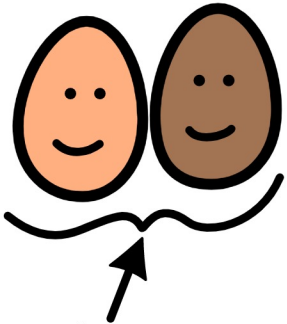

Here is what love

is.

It is not that we loved

God. It is that He loved

us

and sent his Son to give his life

to pay for our sin.

Genesis 12:1-9; 1-6

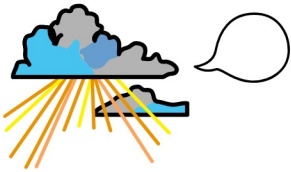

God's plan was to show love

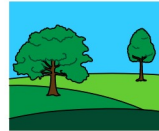

through the world,
starting with one man's family.

That man was Abram. Abram lived in the land of Haran with his wife Sarai.

God spoke to Abram,

"Go from your country,
go to the land I will show you.

I will make you a great nation and bless you.

You will be a blessing to others. I will bless those who bless you.

I will put a curse on anyone who puts a curse on you.

All nations on earth will be blessed because of you."

God promised

Abram and Sarai a family.

Even though Abram had a lot of questions and no answers, he obeyed and they went, just as the Lord had told him.

He was 75 years old. He took all the people and possessions they had acquired and went to the land of Canaan. When they arrived there was nobody there.

God told Abram,

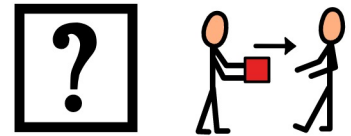

"I will give this land to the family that comes after you."

Abram built an altar to remind him of God's promises.

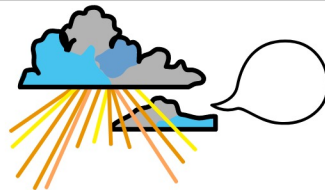

Years passed, Abram asked God,

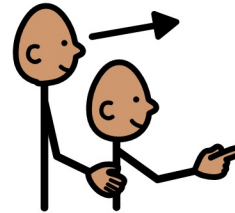

"What can you give me?"

I still don't have any children. When I die, this servant will get everything I own."

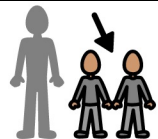

God said to Abram,

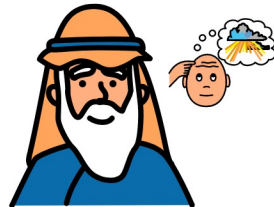

"Look up at the sky.

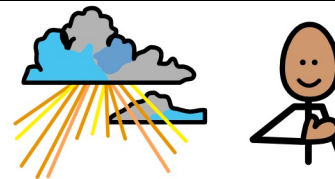

Count the stars, if you can.

That's how many children will be born into your family."

Abram believed in God.

God kept his promise to Abram and Sarai.

Later, God changed their names to Abraham and Sarah and gave them their first child.

This was the first step in God's plan to show love to the world.
