Genesis 31:3; 32:3-32;
33:1-17

Last week we learned that Jacob left his home and stayed away for 20 years because he had tricked his brother Esau

into giving him his rights and blessing as the oldest.

Esau was so angry that he wanted to kill Jacob.

So Jacob went to live with his uncle and had a lot of children.

After that time, God said to Jacob,

"Go back to the land of your fathers and to your relatives,

and I will be with you."

Jacob set out with his whole family. When he got close to home

he sent a message to Esau. He told the messenger to tell Esau,

"Jacob was staying with his uncle and became wealthy, so now he hopes to please you."

The messenger delivered the message and returned. He told Jacob that Esau was coming to meet him with 400 men.

Jacob was worried, so he separated his family and herds into 2 groups in case they were attacked by Esau's army.

But Jacob remembered to talk to God.

He asked God

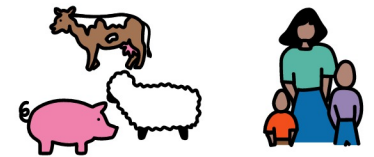

to save him from the hand of Esau.

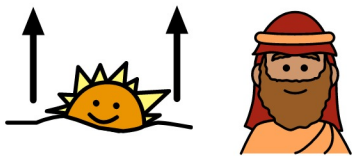

Jacob held onto God's promises.

He decided to send gifts, livestock and his family ahead of him.

The next morning, Jacob looked up and saw Esau coming with his 400 men.

He was still worried, but he didn't hide behind his family or gifts this time.

Jacob bowed down to Esau 7 times, but Esau ran to Jacob, hugged and kissed him. After all that time, the family was back together.

Esau went home and Jacob camped with his family in Canaan.
