Matthew 11:1-6 (James 1:5)

John preached to crowds and baptized them by the Jordan River. He dipped them in water and drew them up again as a sign of a changed heart for God.

Jesus went down to the Jordan River and asked

John to baptize Him because it would carry out God's Holy plan.

Heaven opened up as Jesus was baptized and John saw God's spirit resting on Jesus as a dove.

Then they heard God's voice from heaven,

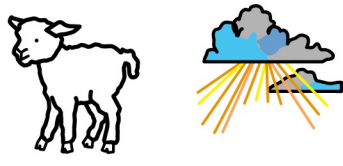

"This is my son and I love him.

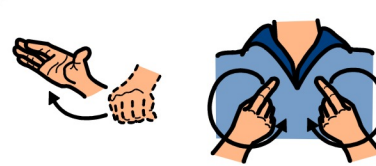

I am very pleased with Him."

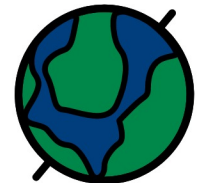

John pointed to Jesus and cried out,

"Look! The lamb of God.

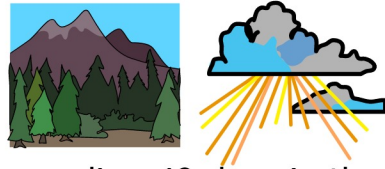

He takes away the sin

of the world.

Jesus began to gain followers after spending 40 days in the wilderness with God.

He would teach and heal people.

John continued teaching and told Herod that he had broken God's law.

Herod was angry and had

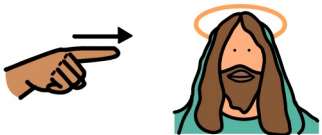

John thrown in prison. John had been in prison and began to question Jesus.

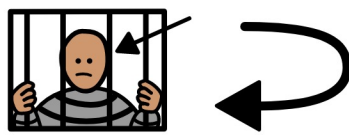

When he heard about the actions of Jesus,

he sent his disciples to him. They asked,

"Are you the one who was supposed to come? Or should we look for someone else?"

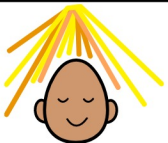

Jesus said, "Go back to John, report to him what you hear and see.

Blind people will receive sight.

People are able to walk. Those who have skin diseases are made clean....

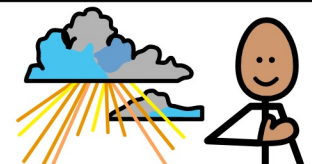

...blessed is anyone who does not give up their faith because of me."

Jesus had responded in love which reassured John that all of God's promises are coming true.
