Matthew 8:5-13

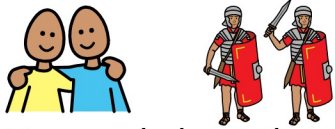

This week we talk about a Roman commander. He was in charge of soldiers that did whatever they were told to do.

He was used to being obeyed. He was stern but also kind.

He cared about the soldiers that worked under him.

One day, one of the soldiers became ill.

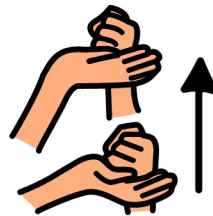

The best doctors

couldn't help him.

The commander went to Jesus and asked for help.

He said, "Lord, my servant lies at home and can't move.

He is suffering terribly."

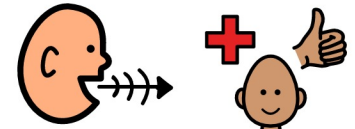

Jesus said, "Shall I come and heal him?"

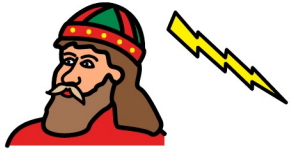

The commander replied, "I am not good enough to have you come to my house.

But just say the word, and my servant will be healed.

I myself, am a man under authority. And I have soldiers who obey my orders...."

When Jesus heard this,

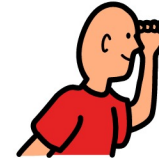

He was amazed. He said to those following him,

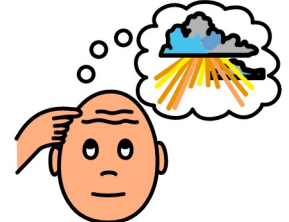

"What I'm about to tell you is true.

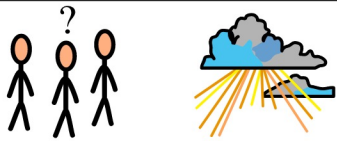

In Israel

I have not found anyone whose faith is so strong.

Anyone who has faith can have God's kingdom."

Jesus then said to the Roman commander, "Go!

It will be done just as you believed it would."

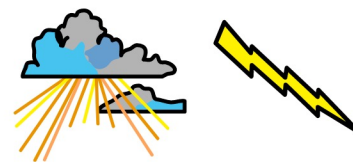

And his servant was healed at that moment.

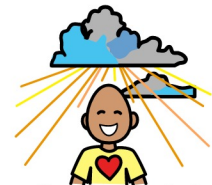

The commander

had respect

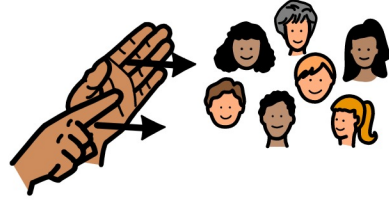

for God as the final authority.

God is all powerful and all loving.
