Colossians 3:13

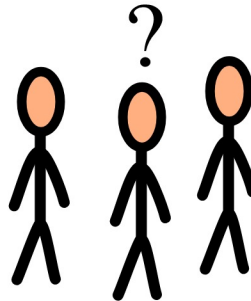

Put up with one another.

Forgive one another

if you are holding something against someone.

Forgive

just as the Lord

forgave

you.

Luke 7:36-50

One day, a man named Simon invited

Jesus to have dinner at his house along with other Pharisees.

A woman from town heard that Jesus was was going to be at Simon's house.

She lived a difficult life and did many wrong things

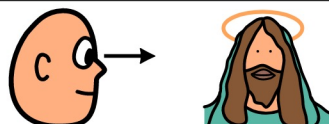

but she knew that

Jesus' love and mercy was greater than her sins.

She wanted to see Jesus so she went to Simon's house.

The woman came with an expensive bottle of perfume.

She stood behind Jesus and cried at His feet. And she began to wet His feet with her tears. Then she wiped His feet with her hair.

She kissed them and poured perfume on them.

Simon saw what the woman had done and he thought

'If this man is a prophet
he would know who was touching him...she is a sinner!"

Jesus knew what Simon was thinking so He responded with a parable (a story).

He explained

why the woman honored
Him so much.

She understood

something about forgiveness

by her acts of great love.

Simon had not shown

Jesus

any love or respect.

Jesus said to the woman,

"Your sins

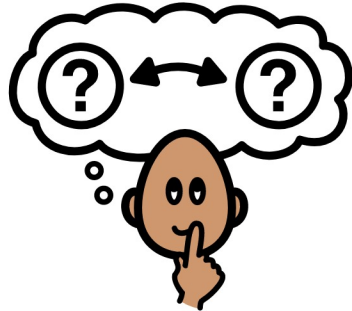

are forgiven.

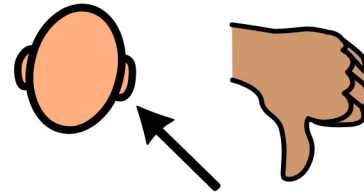

Your faith has saved
you. Go in peace."
