

Jesus

is passionate

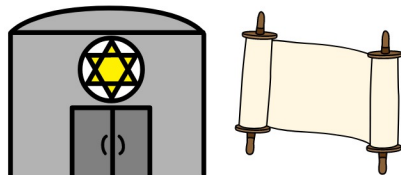

about setting us free

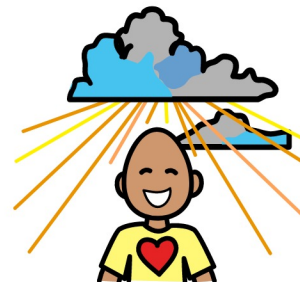

from what imprisons
us.

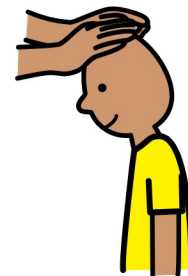

In Luke 4:16-21,

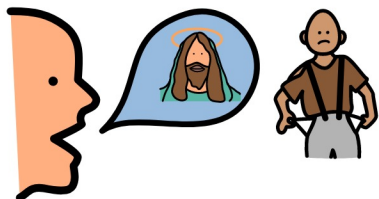

Jesus is in the
synagogue reading
from the scroll of the prophet, Isaiah.

"The Spirit of the Lord
is on me,

because He has
anointed me

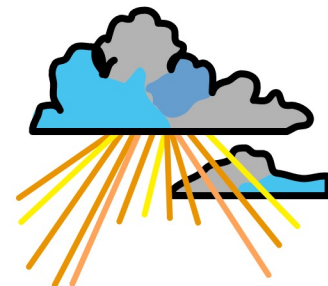

to proclaim good
news to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners

and recovery of sight
for the blind, to set
the opposed free,

to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."

This is sort of like Jesus'

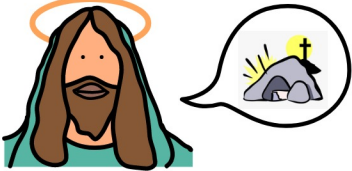

job description.

It tells us what His job was to be while He was on earth.

Here are the things Isaiah said Jesus would do:

1. Jesus tells good news to the poor (those of us who need Him).

2. Jesus frees us from prison

(like being trapped by our own sin).

3. Jesus helps us

see the truth

so we aren't blinded

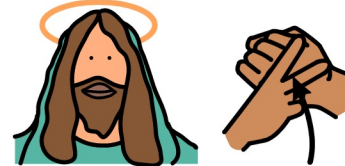

by sin and lies.

4. Jesus wants us to be free in Him and to give us hope.

5. Jesus rescues us and frees us from sin and lies.

Jesus

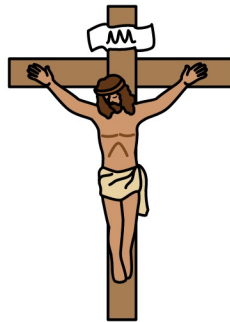

loves

us

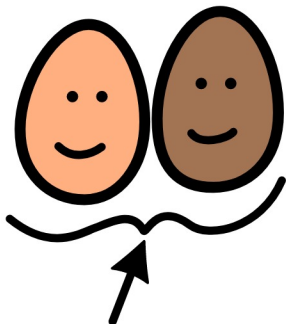

so much

that He was willing to die for our sins

so we could have a relationship with God.
