Hebrews 13:6a NIV

So we say

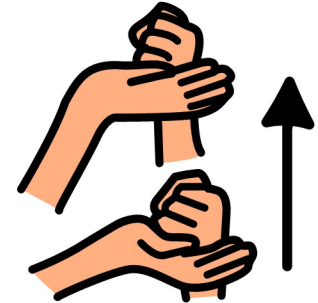

with confidence,

"The Lord

is my helper;

I

will not be afraid."

Acts 2:1-41

Last week, we learned that Jesus gave the disciples a huge mission:

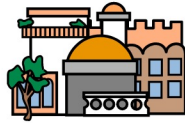

to share the message of Jesus to the world.

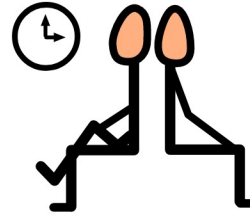

He told them that God would send the Holy Spirit to help them.

Jesus returned to Heaven to be with God.

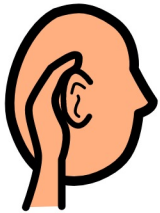

Today, we learn that after Jesus returned to Heaven, His disciples went to Jerusalem.

They waited for 10 days.

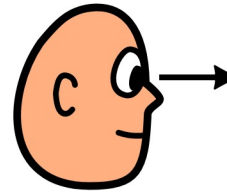

Then, one day when the believers met to pray,

they heard a sound like blowing wind fill the room.

They saw

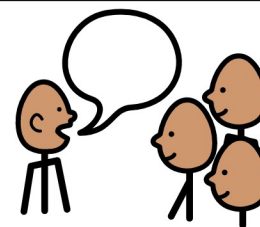

flames glowing and floating in the air.

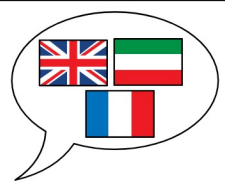

The fire separated and rested over each of their heads. All of them were filled with God's Spirit.

God had given the Holy Spirit and empowered them to preach with boldness.

They started speaking in different languages.

KC May 14 2023 Pg 3

Many people from all over the world had gathered there for Pentecost (feast of wheat).

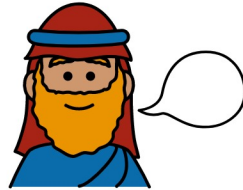

Many people were foreigners.

The people were able to hear about Jesus in their own language.

Some people thought it was nonsense.

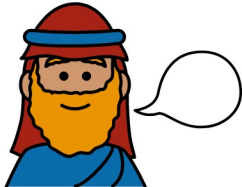

Peter said to them,

"We aren't speaking nonsense" and continued to explain to them

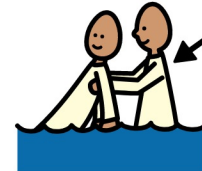

the entire story of Jesus. Many people were amazed.

Peter said,

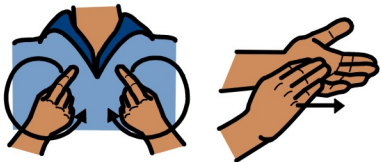

"You must turn away from your sins

and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ,

then your sins will be forgiven and you'll

receive the Holy Spirit."

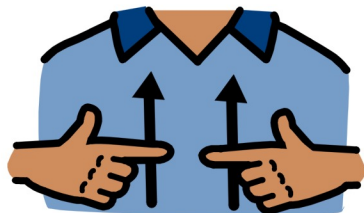

About 3000 people who accepted Jesus to be their Savior were baptized on that day.
