Hebrews 13:6a NIV

So we say

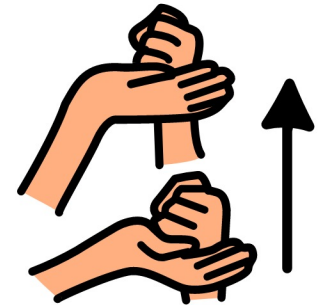

with confidence,

"The Lord

is my helper;

I

will not be afraid."

Acts 2:3:1-4:21 NIV

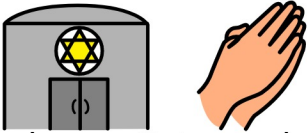

Peter and John were Jesus' disciples.

As we learned last week, they were now walking with the help of the Holy Spirit

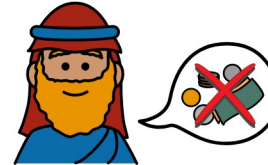

as they told people about Jesus.

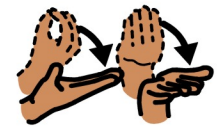

One day, as Peter and John went to the temple to pray, they came upon a man that could not walk. He asked for money.

Peter said, "I don't have silver or gold,

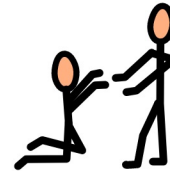

but I'll give you what I do have.

In the name of Jesus Christ,

get up and walk." Peter took the man's hand and instantly the man could stand and walk.

The man was overjoyed and praised God.

He went into the temple with Peter and John.

The people who saw him were surprised.

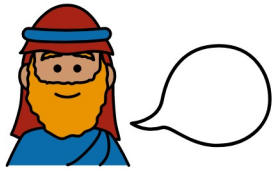

Peter said to them, "Why does this surprise you?"

It is not as if we made him walk by our own power. Jesus has healed him completely."

Peter continued to tell the people about the good news of Jesus.

Thousands of people

believed in Jesus.

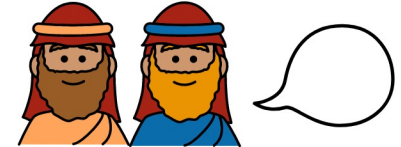

The religious leaders

were so upset,

they had Peter and John arrested and they had to stand trial.

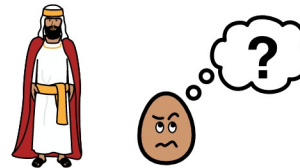

Peter and John told them

the man was healed and began telling them about Jesus.

The religious leaders couldn't figure out how to punish Peter and John, so they let them go.

Peter and all the people continued to praise God for healing the man that couldn't walk.

John had confidence

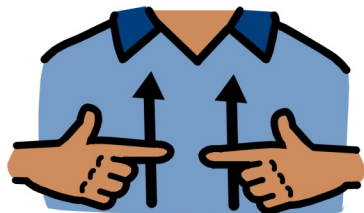

in Jesus and they

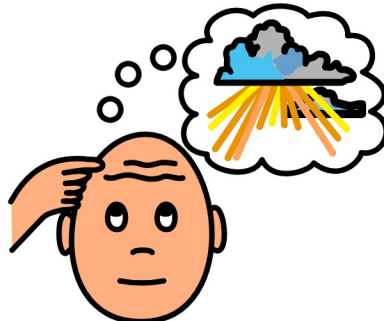

continued to preach no matter what happened.
