Acts 12:1-19

During this time, King Herod ruled over all Judea.

He was Jewish, but served the Roman

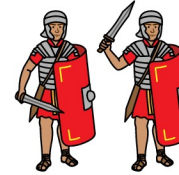

He wanted to get rid of all the Jesus followers.

When he killed James, he saw that the religious leaders were pleased.

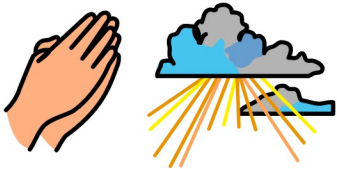

So he had Peter arrested also and put in prison.

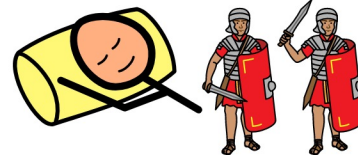

Peter was watched by 4 groups of soldiers.

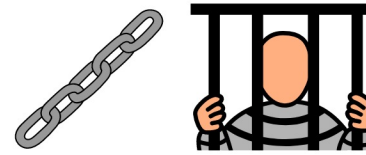

Herod had planned to put Peter on public trial.

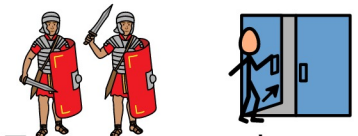

The church prayed to God for Peter.

Peter was sleeping in prison between 2 guards and was chained up.

Two more guards were at the entrance of the prison.

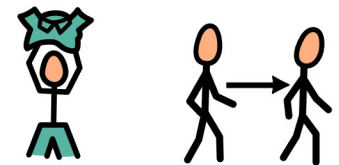

Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared and said,

"Quick, get up!"

The chain fell off of Peter's wrists.

"Put on your clothes and follow me."

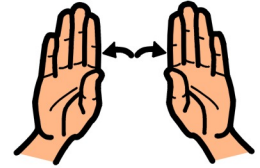

Peter followed him out of prison. He thought he was dreaming.

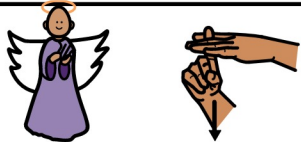

They passed the first and second set of guards

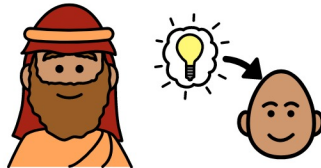

then they came to an iron gate.

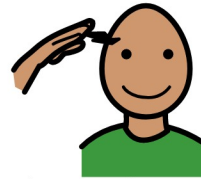

The gate opened by itself.

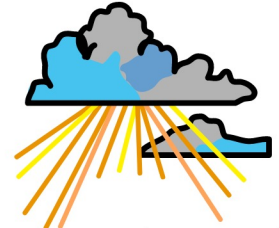

After they had walked, the length of one street, the angel disappeared.

Peter realized what had happened. He said,

"Now I know for sure that the Lord sent his angels

and rescued me from

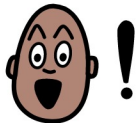

Herod's power."

Peter went to

Mary's house and shared his story.

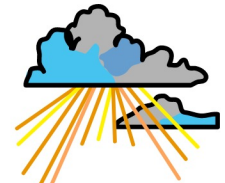

Mary and the others could hardly believe what they saw.

Their prayers were answered and

Peter was with them again.

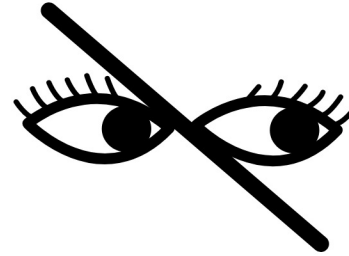

God was with Peter when he was stuck!
