God gave

Solomon the gift of wisdom.

He lived a full life of riches and fame, but at the end of his life, he began to think and question

what was most important.

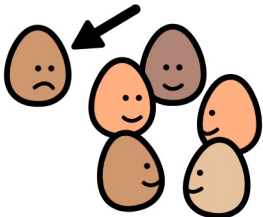

In Ecclesiastes,

Solomon shares what he learned about life.

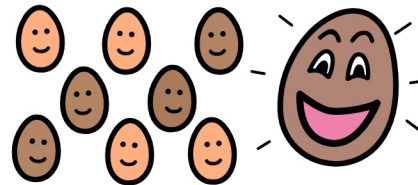

He shares about a man who worked for lots of money,

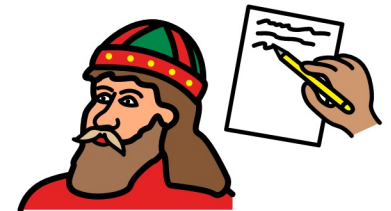

but doesn't have anyone to share life with.

Solomon had all the stuff and money, but that's not what brought him joy.

King Solomon wrote,

KC September 3 2023 Pg 3

"Two people are better than one."

They can help each other in everything they do."

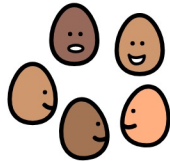

Solomon continued to explain that,

like a three strand cord,

we are stronger

when we work together as friends.

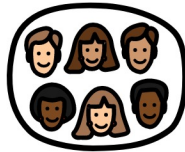

We are not designed to live life alone.

Jesus modeled

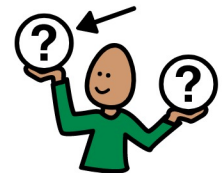

how important it was to have friends.

He showed friendship to everyone he met.

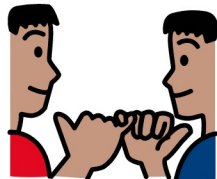

It's important to have the right sort of people around us to help us make wise choices.

Choose friends that help you,

encourage, and stand up for you.

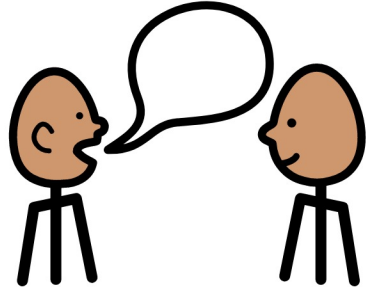

We can reflect Jesus' love

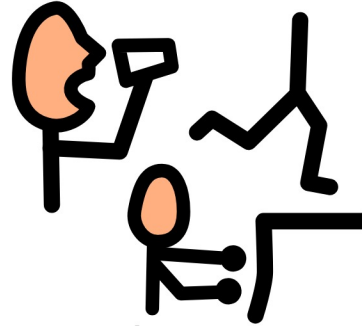

by taking time to care for friends.
